Sept 13	Looked for possible topics	https://www.sciencenews.org/ More that I forgot to note. None of them helped me, not even this one
Sept 20	Chose topic,Which one is the best author of loved stories, AI, or celebrated authors?-experimental	Talked with Mom and Dad, about possible topics before choosing, helped finalize top 3.1. Which one is the best author of loved stories, AI, or celebrated authors?-experimental 2. Can AI make better diagnosis than real doctors- research 3. People ask AI questions about homework, math, and other academic subjects, and see if they can answer in ways that students can understand. So, basically, if they can help students more than teachers	Ms Dawn and I decided to to the experiment on her 11 grade 4 students she teaches Parachute, a class like friendology.
